Revelation Gifts -- A Five-Day Devotional Series

by Pastor Mirek Hufton

DAY:

Monday

TITLE:

Lay It All Down

KEY VERSE:

Romans 12:1 -- "I appeal to you therefore, brothers, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God, which is your spiritual worship."

REFLECTION:

I want to talk to you about something that changed everything for me -- availability. Not ability. Not talent. Not a perfect track record. Just availability. When I lay everything at the altar, I'm not performing a ritual -- I'm making a declaration. I'm saying, "God, here I am. All of me." And what I've discovered is that's genuinely all He wants. He's not waiting for you to get it together first. He's not waiting for you to feel ready. He's waiting for you to show up and stay there. The altar isn't a one-time moment -- it's a posture. It's how we live. When we stay surrendered, something supernatural begins to move. He speaks. He directs. He opens things up. It starts with laying it down.

PRAYER:

Lord, I lay everything down before You today -- my plans, my fears, my need to have it all figured out. I'm making myself available. Have Your way in me.

DAILY ACTION:

Take five quiet minutes this morning to sit before God with open hands -- literally open your palms -- and tell Him you're available today.

Stay At The Altar

KEY VERSE:

Psalms 27:4 -- "One thing I ask from the Lord, this only do I seek: that I may dwell in the house of the Lord all the days of my life, to gaze on the beauty of the Lord and to seek him in his temple."

REFLECTION:

Here's what I've learned -- it's not just about coming to the altar. It's about staying there. So many of us have beautiful moments of surrender, and then we walk away and carry everything back on our own shoulders again. But when I stay in that place of surrender, that's when God begins to speak. First this, then this, then this -- He unfolds things step by step. He doesn't always give you the whole map at once. He gives you the next step. And He gives it to people who are still waiting, still listening, still available. I want to challenge you this week -- don't just visit the altar. Take up residence there. Make surrender your lifestyle, not just your Sunday habit. That sustained posture is where revelation flows.

PRAYER:

Father, teach me to stay. I don't want to just visit Your presence -- I want to live there. Keep my heart close to You throughout this entire day.

DAILY ACTION:

Set a reminder on your phone for midday today that simply reads: "Am I still available to God right now?" Pause and reconnect with Him when it goes off.

The House That Launches

KEY VERSE:

Acts 13:2-3 -- "While they were worshiping the Lord and fasting, the Holy Spirit said, 'Set apart for me Barnabas and Saul for the work to which I have called them.' So after they had fasted and prayed, they placed their hands on them and sent them off."

REFLECTION:

I believe the local church is supposed to be a launching pad. Not a holding tank. When I look at the early church, I see people who gathered, worshipped, listened -- and then got sent. The House of God isn't just where we come to receive; it's where we get equipped and released for the callings already on our lives. You already have a calling. It didn't arrive when you joined a ministry team. God placed it in you before you were born. What the church does -- what we do together -- is create an environment where that calling gets identified, developed, and released. I want our church to be a place where nobody sits on their gift indefinitely. We're here to launch people. That's not just my vision -- that's the biblical pattern.

PRAYER:

Lord, thank You that You've already placed a calling inside me. Help me to recognise it clearly and give our church the grace to be a community that releases people well.

DAILY ACTION:

Write down one gift, ability, or passion you believe God has placed in you -- even if it feels undeveloped. Just name it today.

God Is Preparing You

KEY VERSE:

Jeremiah 29:11 -- "For I know the plans I have for you, declares the Lord, plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future."

REFLECTION:

I want you to hear this clearly today -- God is preparing you. Right now. Even in the season you're in, even in the waiting, even in the uncomfortable stretch you didn't choose. He is actively, intentionally preparing people for what He's about to do. And here's the word of wisdom I carry for this season: it's going to happen at a quicker pace. God is accelerating things. The preparation seasons that used to take years are being compressed. That means you need to stay close, stay available, stay surrendered -- because when the moment comes, you won't have time to catch up. You'll need to already be ready. Don't despise the process you're in. It's not punishment. It's preparation. And the God who is preparing you is the same God who already knows exactly where you're going.

PRAYER:

Lord, I trust Your timing even when I don't fully understand it. Thank You that You're at work in me right now, preparing me for everything You've planned. I won't rush ahead of You.

DAILY ACTION:

Think of one thing in your current season that has felt frustrating or slow. Today, choose to reframe it out loud as preparation, not punishment.

A Faster Pace

KEY VERSE:

Isaiah 60:22 -- "The least of you will become a thousand, the smallest a mighty nation. I am the Lord; in its time I will do this swiftly."

REFLECTION:

God said it Himself -- in its time, I will do this swiftly. That's the word of wisdom I feel in my spirit for our church and for you personally. Things are going to move at a faster pace. Callings will be confirmed more quickly. Doors will open with less waiting. People who have been quietly faithful in small things are about to be trusted with larger things. But -- and this matters -- swift doesn't mean without surrender. Accelerated doesn't mean unsupported by a life of prayer and availability. The speed comes because the preparation has been happening underneath the surface, in the hidden place, at the altar. So as we close this week, I want to ask you: are you positioned for acceleration? Keep laying it down. Keep staying. Keep saying yes. The pace is picking up.

PRAYER:

Lord, thank You that You work swiftly when the time is right. I want to be someone who is ready when You move. Keep me faithful, available, and expectant this weekend and beyond.

DAILY ACTION:

Share with one person today -- a friend, family member, or church member -- something God has been stirring in you this week. Speaking it out is an act of faith.
