"Our Calling Is To Be Like Jesus"

PASTOR MIREK HUFTON

1. SERMON RECAP

Pastor Mirek Hufton opened with a simple yet profound declaration: the purpose of every believer's life is to be conformed to the image of Jesus Christ. Drawing from 1 John 3:1-3 and Romans 8:29, he reminded the congregation that God foreknew and predestined each person to reflect the character of His Son. He challenged the group to pursue holiness, guard their minds, and surrender their personal agendas entirely to God, emphasizing that a sanctified life is the secret to genuine spiritual power and fulfillment.

2. KEY SCRIPTURE

Romans 8:29 (NKJV)

"For whom He foreknew, He also predestined to be conformed to the image of His Son, that He might be the firstborn among many brethren."

3. ICE BREAKER

Think of someone you admired growing up and naturally tried to imitate. Who was it, and what was one habit or quality you picked up from watching them?

4. DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. Pastor Mirek described being like Jesus as the defining purpose of a Christian's life, not just one goal among many. Does that idea feel fresh and motivating to you, or does it feel like pressure? What makes the difference between those two reactions?
2. He pointed out that when mankind fell, humanity shifted from selfless, God-honoring motivation to a nature dominated by self-centeredness. Where do you personally notice that pull toward self most strongly in your everyday life, and what tends to help redirect you?

3. Pastor Mirek said that Jesus was completely consecrated to the Father's will, with no hidden agenda. He asked whether our own consecration is real or whether we have "a little portion for God" while other agendas run underneath. How honest can we be with ourselves about that? What would full consecration actually look like in your current season of life?

4. He taught that holiness in the Hebrew sense means "to live carefully," and that guarding what we see, hear, and consume is our personal responsibility. Where do you find it hardest to live carefully, and what practical boundaries have you found genuinely helpful?

5. Pastor Mirek described the Word of God and the fire of the Holy Spirit as the two great tools God has given believers to renew the mind and walk in purity. How consistently are you using both, and which one tends to get neglected in your routine?

6. He closed by sharing a moment from that very morning when he was too sharp with a staff member and had to go back and ask forgiveness. He said that being real rather than flaky is essential to avoiding hypocrisy. How does seeing a leader respond that way affect the way you think about pursuing holiness yourself?

5. APPLICATION CHALLENGE

Identify one specific area this week where you know your mind is being set on the flesh rather than the Spirit, whether a habit of scrolling, a recurring conversation, an entertainment choice, or a pattern of thought. Choose one concrete boundary to put in place for the next seven days, tell one person in this group what it is, and report back next week on how it went.

6. PRAYER POINTS

- Pray that each group member would gain a fresh, personal conviction that being conformed to the image of Jesus is genuinely the purpose of their life, not just a religious phrase.
 - Pray for the discipline and desire to guard hearts and minds through consistent time in the Word and in the presence of the Holy Spirit, especially in areas where compromise has quietly crept in.
 - Pray for the courage to pursue full consecration, surrendering personal agendas to God, and for the grace to return quickly and honestly to Him whenever there is a stumble.

7. MEMORY VERSE

1 John 3:3 (NKJV)

"And everyone who has this hope in Him purifies himself, just as He is pure."
