

Established In The Present Truth

ESTABLISHED IN THE PRESENT TRUTH

A 5-DAY DEVOTIONAL SERIES BY PASTOR MIREK HUFTON

DAY:

Monday

TITLE:

Rooted and Ready

KEY VERSE:

Colossians 2:7 -- "Rooted and built up in him, and established in the faith, as ye have been taught, abounding therein with thanksgiving."

REFLECTION:

I want to share something that burns in my heart for you -- I want you established. Not shaky. Not wobbling every time the wind changes. Established. When I look out at this congregation, I see potential that the devil himself is terrified of. And that's exactly why he works so hard to keep you distracted, uncommitted, and spiritually rootless. But here's what I know: when you get rooted in the Word of God, when you plant yourself and say "I'm not moving," something supernatural happens. You become unmovable. The enemy can't touch what God has established. This week, we're building together -- brick by brick, truth by truth. Start today by simply deciding: I will be established. That decision alone shifts something in the spiritual realm. God is ready. Are you?

PRAYER:

Lord, I choose today to get rooted in You. Establish me in Your Word and make me unmovable. Thank You that You're faithful to finish what You started in me. Amen.

DAILY ACTION:

Write the word "ESTABLISHED" somewhere you'll see it today -- your mirror, phone wallpaper, or notebook -- as a daily declaration over your life.

DAY:

Tuesday

TITLE:

The Word Is Your Anchor

KEY VERSE:

Psalm 119:105 -- "Thy word is a lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path."

REFLECTION:

Let me be straight with you -- I've been through some things. When we planted our church, I received a prophetic word that witches and warlocks would come against us. I thought, seriously? But that word wasn't given to scare me. It was given to anchor me. And when it all happened exactly like the prophet said, I had something to hold onto. That's what the Word of God does for you. It's not decoration. It's not religious poetry. It's your lifeline when everything around you gets rough. See, some of you have received prophetic words and promises from God, and right now you're confused because life doesn't look like what was spoken. Don't let go. That word was sent specifically to encourage you through the tough season, not just celebrate you in the good one. Grab hold of it and don't release it.

PRAYER:

Father, help me trust Your Word even when my circumstances don't match Your promises yet. Give me the strength to hold on and not let go. I believe You are faithful. Amen.

DAILY ACTION:

Find one scripture promise that speaks to a current struggle in your life, write it on a card, and read it out loud three times today.

DAY:

Wednesday

TITLE:

Stop Checking, Start Committing

KEY VERSE:

Proverbs 3:5-6 -- "Trust in the Lord with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding. In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths."

REFLECTION:

I'll be honest with you -- I've had people sitting in our church for a full year still "checking" whether I'm their pastor. And I say this with love and a little laughter: my friend, what more do you need? There's something in us that wants to keep every option open, never fully commit, always leaving one foot out the door. But that's not faith -- that's fear dressed up as wisdom. God can't fully establish what you won't fully surrender. Commitment isn't a trap. It's actually where your freedom lives. When you stop drifting and plant yourself -- in a church, in the Word, in relationship with God -- that's when the breakthrough comes. The blessings of God chase down people who are moving in a committed direction. You can't chase down someone who keeps changing course. Make up your mind today.

PRAYER:

Lord, forgive me for the times I've held back from full commitment out of fear. Today I choose to trust You completely and plant myself where You've placed me. Direct my path. Amen.

DAILY ACTION:

Identify one area of your spiritual life where you've been "still checking" and make one concrete commitment today -- attend a service, join a group, or open your Bible consistently.

DAY:

Thursday

TITLE:

Cast Out What Doesn't Belong

KEY VERSE:

James 4:7 -- "Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you."

REFLECTION:

I'll tell you something I learned the hard way in ministry -- not everything that walks through the door wearing a smile and carrying a Bible is sent by God. I had to learn discernment. I had to learn that some things in my life, and some influences around me, were keeping me from the altitude God wanted me to reach. And here's what I discovered: you cannot climb higher carrying what was designed to drag you down. What I want you to hear today is this -- Jesus has already overcome everything the enemy throws at you. Every chain, every lie, every attack. But you have a role to play. You resist. You stand firm. You use the authority Jesus gave you. Stop tolerating in your life what Jesus already defeated at the cross. Submit to God, resist the devil, and watch him run.

PRAYER:

Jesus, thank You that You've already won every battle I'm facing. I submit myself fully to You today and I resist every lie and attack of the enemy in Your name. Amen.

DAILY ACTION:

Identify one negative influence, habit, or voice in your life that's pulling you down spiritually, and take one practical step today to create distance from it.

DAY:

Friday

TITLE:

Becoming Who the Devil Is Afraid Of

KEY VERSE:

Ephesians 6:10 -- "Finally, my brethren, be strong in the Lord, and in the power of his might."

REFLECTION:

This is what I'm believing for you -- I want you to become someone the devil is genuinely afraid of. I'm serious. When you walk into a room, I want hell to take notice. When you open your mouth to pray, I want chains to break. That's not arrogance -- that's the plan of God for every single one of His children. But here's the truth: that kind of strength doesn't come from a single prayer line or one powerful Sunday. It comes from being established. Day after day in the Word. Week after week in community. Year after year of saying yes to God even when it's hard. You were not created to be a spiritual pushover. You were created to be a pillar. Strong. Planted. Established. The calling on your life is real, and it's waiting for you to rise up and walk in it. Today is a great day to start.

PRAYER:

Father, make me into the man or woman of God You created me to be. I want to walk in the full authority and calling You've placed on my life. Establish me and make me strong. Amen.

DAILY ACTION:

Share one thing God has been speaking to you this week with a trusted friend, family member, or fellow church member -- speak your faith out loud and build one another up.
